

NOTIFICATION CURRICULUM OUTCOMES MEDICAL COLLEGE

At the end of 5 years training in the MBBS program, the medical graduate should be able to practice and perform as a competent care provider, brilliant clinical decision maker, creative researcher, a role model and an effective communicator i.e. a 5 star doctor.

- Competent Care Provider:
 - Apply evidence-based, best available, latest concepts to provide effective and safe patient care (assessed by SEQ, MCQ, OSCE, Long & Short Cases).
- Brilliant Clinical Decision Maker:
 - Perform clinical skills and procedures grounded in knowledge about their indications, contraindications and complications to ensure patient safety (assessed by OSCE, Long & Short Cases).
- Creative Researcher:
 - Demonstrate creativity and a research-oriented attitude with appropriate knowledge of research question, design, data evaluation & ethics in conducting research (assessed by SEQ, MCQ, OSCE).
- Role Model:
 - Deal with problems of population-based primary health care, including health promotion and disease prevention with special emphasis on vulnerable populations by understanding his/her role as an effective health care member and be able to take appropriate action (assessed by SEQ, MCQ, OSCE, Long & Short Cases)
- Effective Communicator:

Demonstrate good interpersonal communication skills (assessed by OSCE, Long & Short Cases).